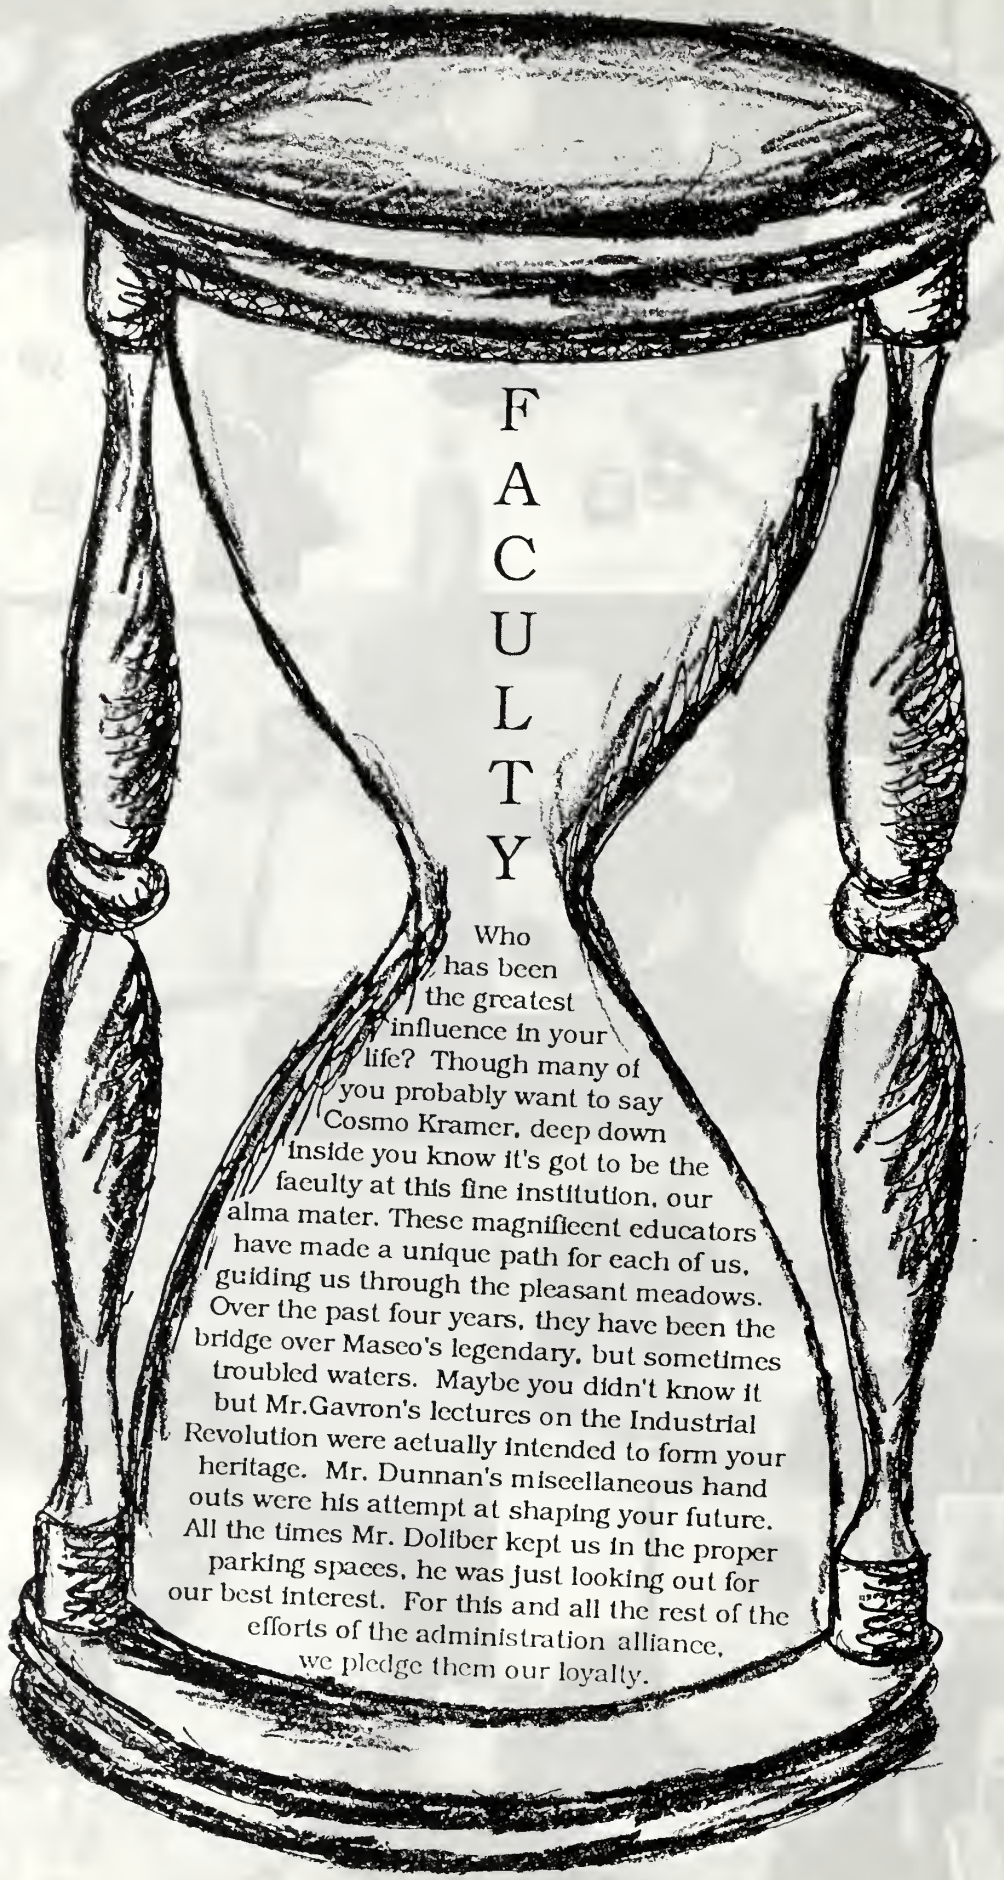
"Let's see, 3-D glasses, the theme must be 'movies'!" No, it's not movies but it does have to do with images. Not necessarily images projected on a screen, but those that encompass everyday life. How do people see you? You're a jock, a preppie, a slacker, a nerd... Does it really matter? Or is it just about how you perceive yourself? These four years at Masco are supposed to be some of our greatest. But it's difficult sometimes to know if the direction we're looking in is where we'll end up. Hopefully by senior year, your distorted views will have come into focus enough so that you're ready to move on. We have the ability to light our own paths into the future. That's what makes us who we are... unique individuals in a common world...

VISIONARIES



FACULTY

Who has been the greatest influence in your life? Though many of you probably want to say Cosmo Kramer, deep down inside you know it's got to be the faculty at this fine institution, our alma mater. These magnificent educators have made a unique path for each of us, guiding us through the pleasant meadows. Over the past four years, they have been the bridge over Maseo's legendary, but sometimes troubled waters. Maybe you didn't know it but Mr.Gavron's lectures on the Industrial Revolution were actually intended to form your heritage. Mr. Dunnan's miscellaneous hand outs were his attempt at shaping your future. All the times Mr. Doliber kept us in the proper parking spaces, he was just looking out for our best interest. For this and all the rest of the efforts of the administration alliance, we pledge them our loyalty.

Keeping Us In Focus

A Sine Of Excellence

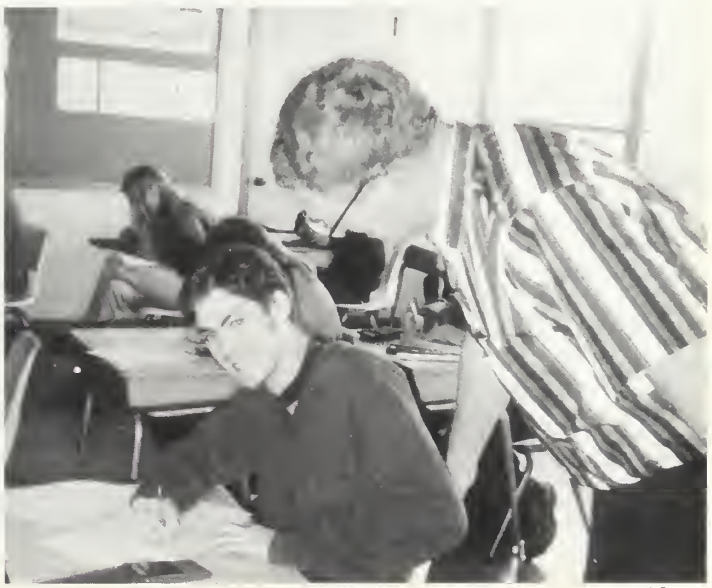
Forget all the vision, the optics, and all the reflection just for a minute. For at this point folks, it's time to get serious. To some, the arrival of June brought merely the end of another tedious year of schooling. However, there's truly a larger issue at hand. 1997 marks the final year of the teaching tenure of Donald Van Pelt.

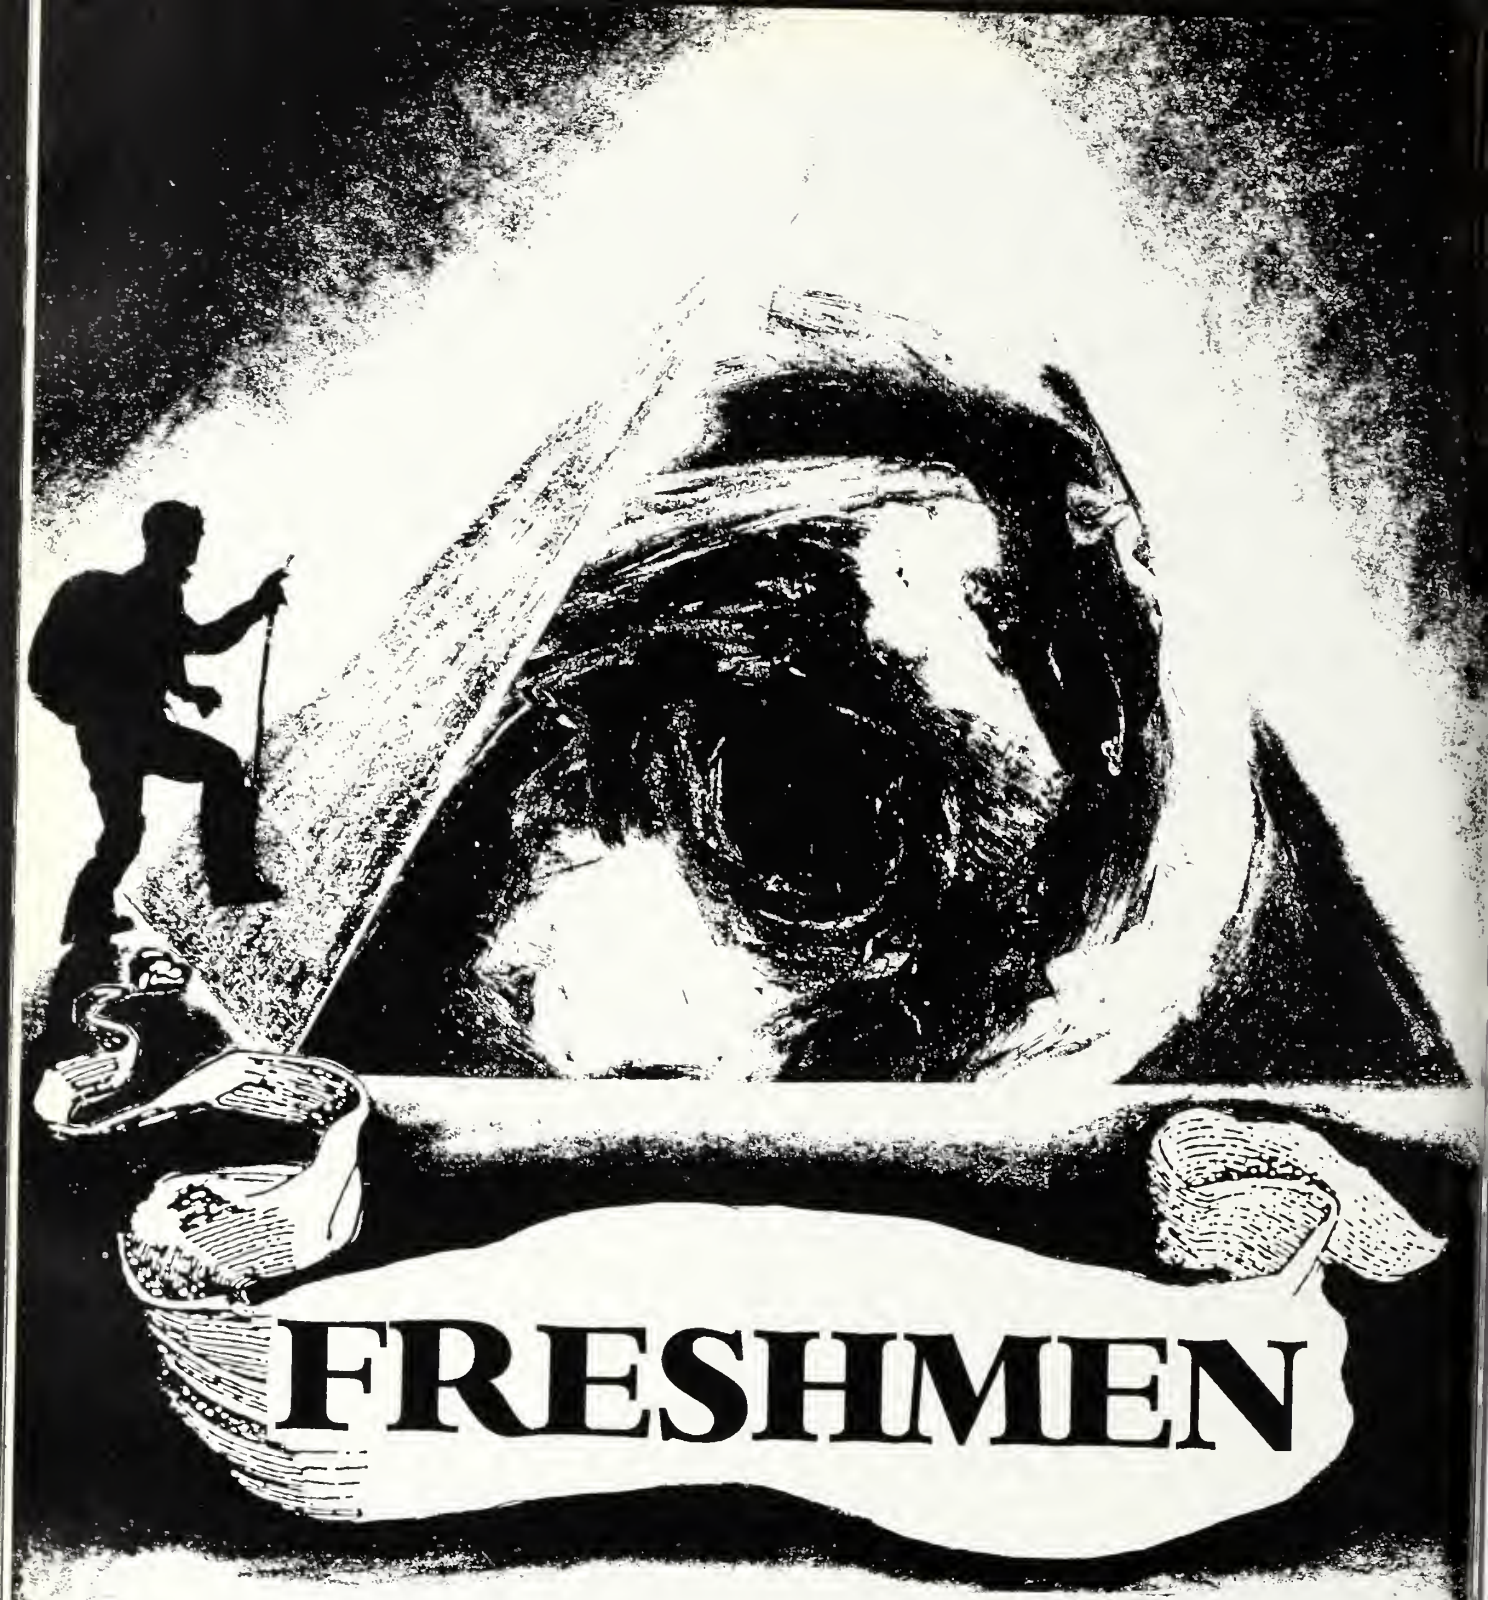
A constant fixture here at Masconomet for 37 years, Van Pelt has had a strong influence on the school's mathematical development, and is consequently highly respected by all students and faculty. In a sampling of Van Pelt's influence on fellow staff members, he is dubbed as, "The purist mathematician in this strong department," by Richard Craig. Robert Cleary adds, "He's been very helpful to everyone, especially myself as a new teacher. I thank him dearly for his advice and patience." Students feel the same, as he balanced humor and skill in only the best way.

There's no doubt that Masco will lose one of its greatest teachers when the bell rings for the final time in June 1997. However, one man will miss him a lot more after the last final exam has been graded. Fellow math-man and car pool pal, Thomas Hussey, explains that Van Pelt has become his best friend over the years. "He's truly a fine and caring man indeed. He'd do anything to help out anyone at anytime." Hussey recalls one instance when Van Pelt came to his house on Christmas day to fix frozen pipes while he himself was vacationing.

He's the epitome of good nature and just as Hussey will miss the car rides, we'll all miss him for assistance and leadership. He's fair, frank and I've even seen him crack a smile or two. In his opinion, we should only be so lucky to have a job like his. Good Luck to you, Donald Van Pelt!

"The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their pursuit of excellence."- Vince Lombardi





FRESHMEN

You are no longer the little tikes. By taking that big leap into High School, you rid yourself of all your scary premonitions. The whole world is rapidly evolving around you. Still the most important things on your mind remain to be, "Is this outfit fly enough?" and "That senior is so cute!" Sitting back in Junior High, you never would have visualized gym class with the girls playing football and the boys playing field hockey. Now it's a reality your dream of the future is a bit hazy right now, but there's one thing you must remember during the next three years: Keep your eyes open and never watch opportunities pass you by.

SOPHOMORES

Finally the blur of Freshman year has started to come into focus. Sophomore year is similar to waking from a dream; the world is still fuzzy, as you try to open your eyes and "see the light." It's hard to keep your head straight when the world whizzes by below you, as you fly down the zip line. You never thought you could see the world from the heights Project Adventure took you to. Hopefully this new perspective will help you survive the next two years.

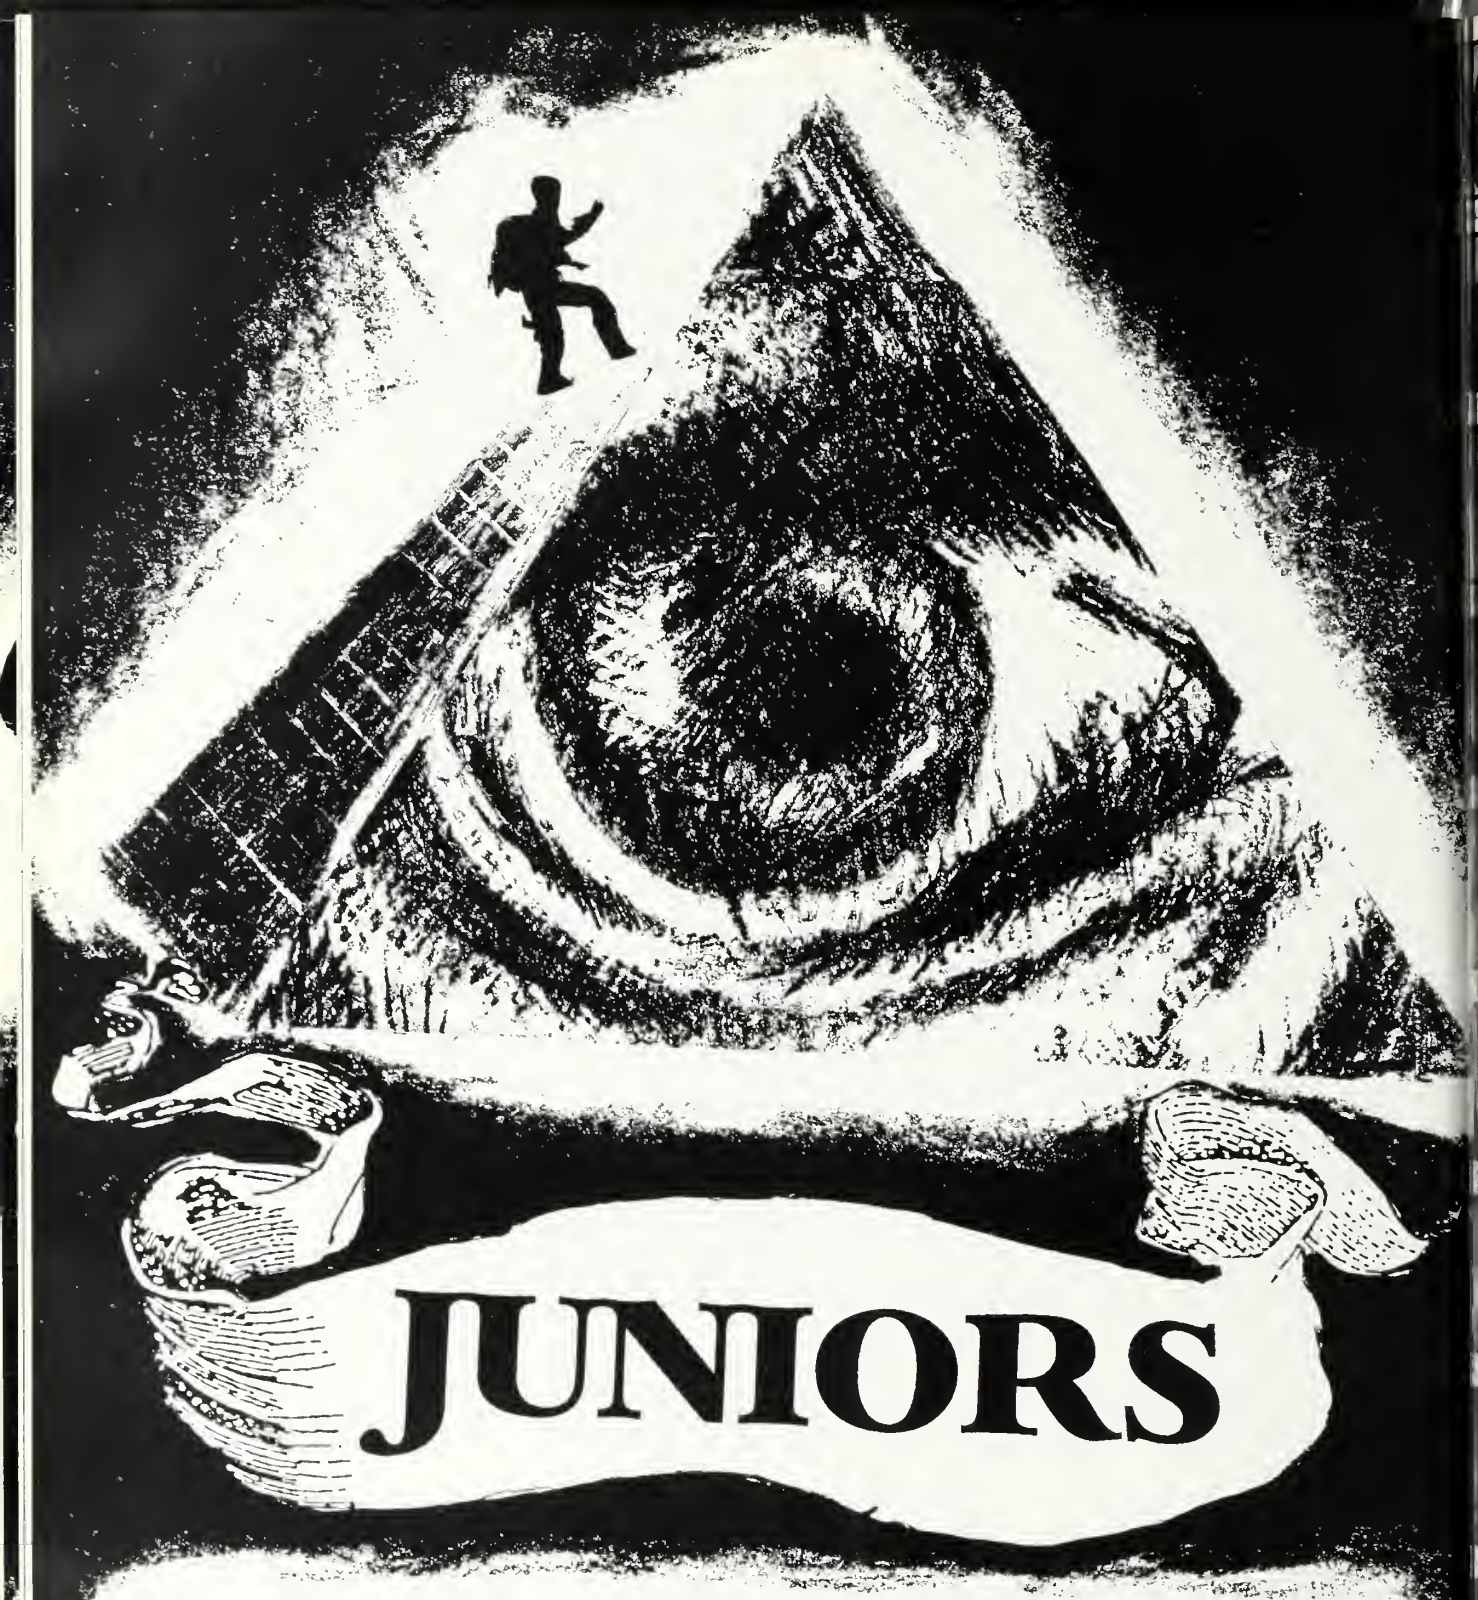
SPIDERS



JUNIORS

As a Junior, you spend more time thinking about the future. The real world looms just outside your line of sight. Often your day-dreams of easy SAT tests, the perfect job, college, or other new adventures, are interrupted by an angry math teacher who caught you off-guard. Looking back on the past three years of High School, you realize that sometimes it's not important how others see you, but how you perceive yourself. Junior year helps to shed some light on your reflections of the present and the future. Who knows what the next year will bring!

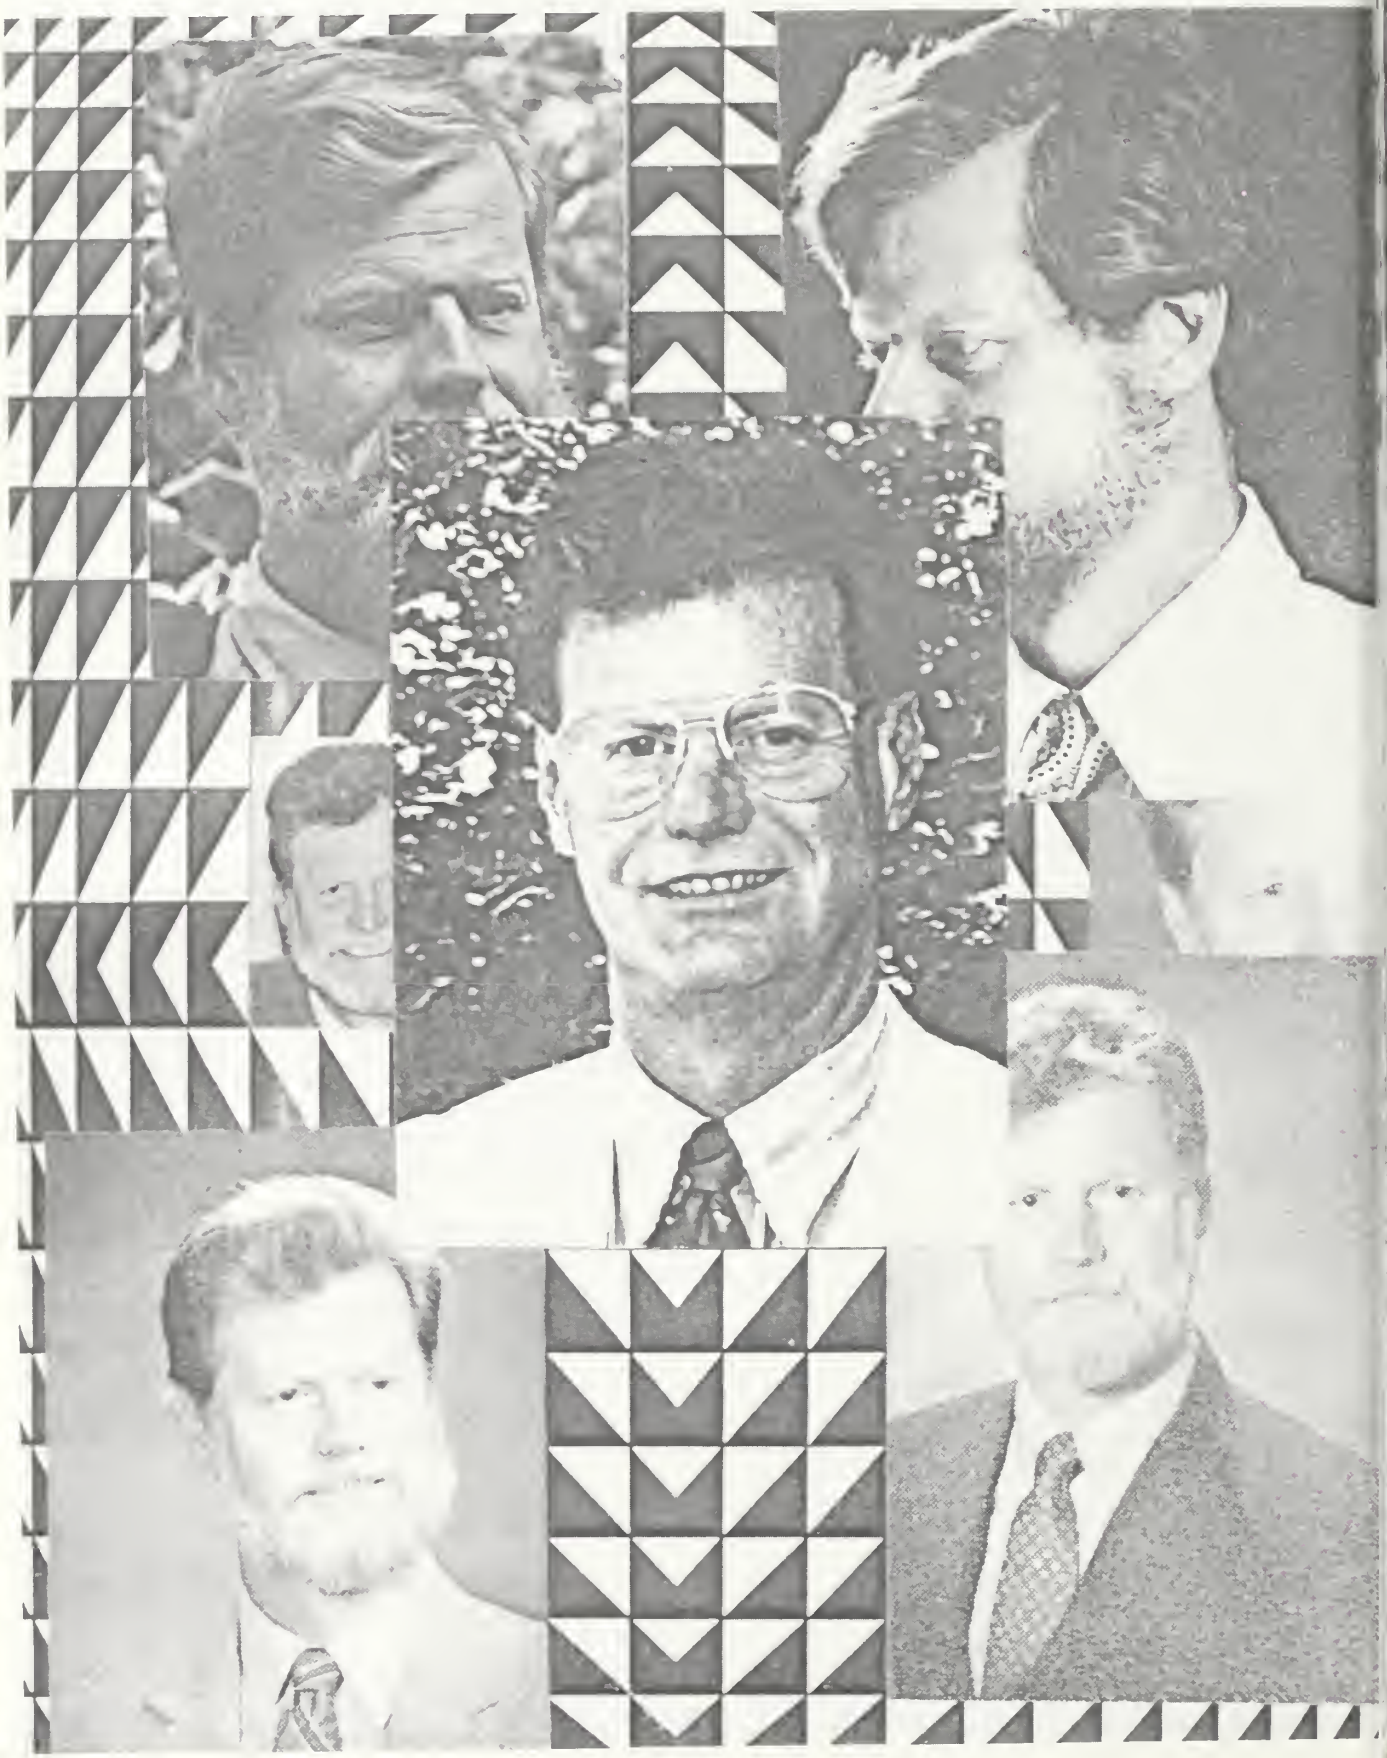
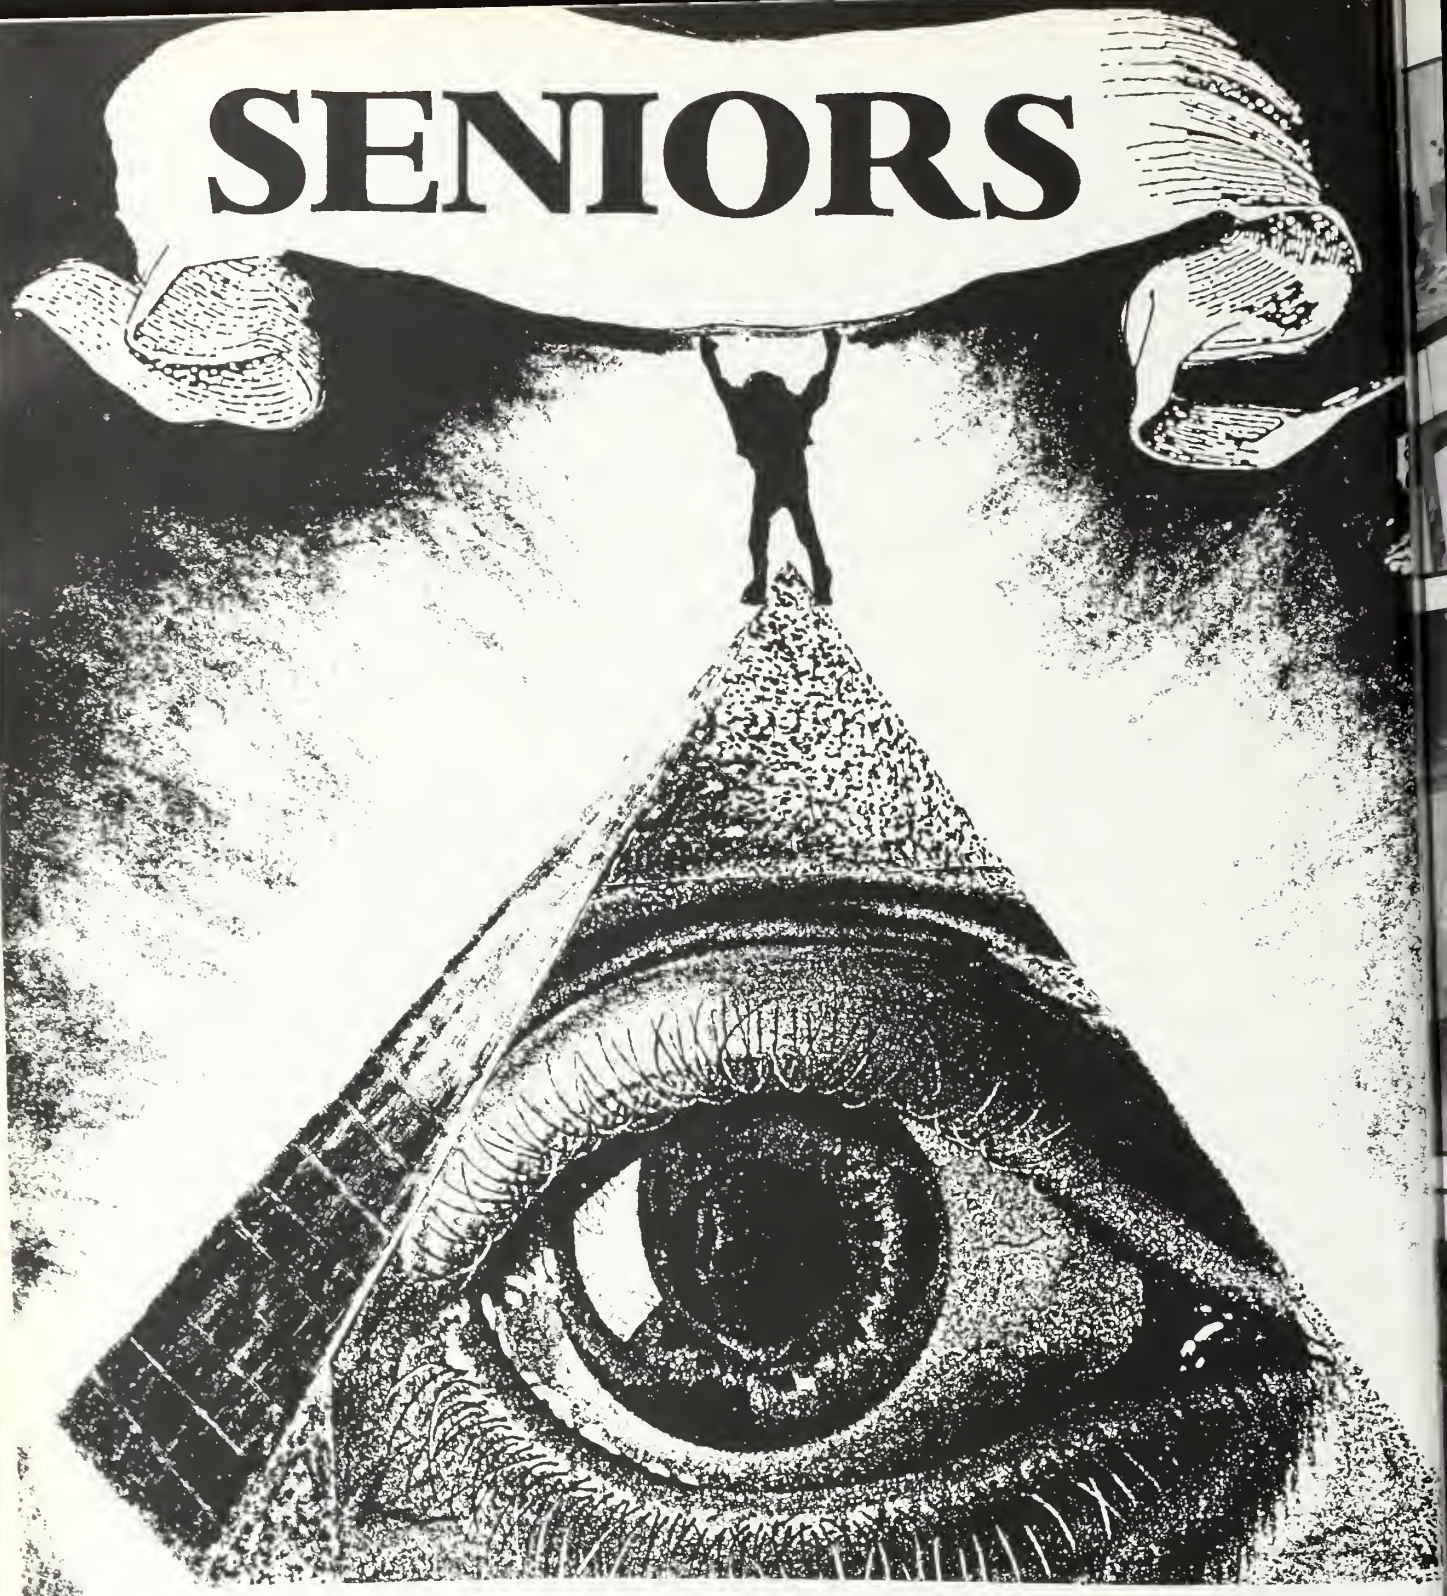
PRINCIPAL STEPHEN SMITH



As we heard in Mr. Smith's departing address to Masco, he declared that for the second time he would be graduating from high school, this time with the senior class of 1997. As a tribute to all his years of hard work, we've decided to place him at the head of our class.

Having joined Masconomet in 1974, Stephen Smith's vision of the future of Masco shaped how it is known today - one of the best high schools around. For 23 years he has maintained this upstanding reputation, and always enjoys a good compliment about his students and staff. Like the senior class of '97, Mr. Smith will always look back to the wonderful memories of Masconomet. Now it's time for him to travel on to a new chapter in life. Thank you, Mr. Smith.

SENIORS



There are only a few sure things in this world. Now, after spending four years at this wonderful institution, we seniors are sure to know them all. Columbus landed on Plymouth Rock, the sun revolves around the Earth, and 2 + 2 = 5. Everything is krystal cleer!! Well, as you can see, we could still use a little help. Now that we are on the threshold of a new beginning, we're ready to take the world by storm. The hallowed halls of Masconomet will never again direct our vision, for this bunch of superb seniors is rocketing off towards bigger and better things. These are the faces of 1997. Go ahead . . . Lay your eyes on these Beauties!!

It has been four short years and now it's over. I can't believe we made it. I will miss the Masconomet memories that I was awake through.

Advice For the Future: Steve M. stay out of Boon-as'-Ville; Josh N. keep on truckin' and jammin'; Dan H. become a free lance photographer; Linda L. Don't go in a car with somebo that drives off cliffs; Sarah C. stay away from guys with cameras; Vinny C. become a mathematician; Ray R. Don't cut yourself.

Special thanks to: Mr. Fay, Ms. Haas, Mr. Serino, Mr. Sinnot and Ms. Tenanty.

I would also like to thank my parents and my brother Garett, though your comments weren' always optimistic I could not have done it without you.

The best four years of my life? I don't know, but I do know that we are finally out!!!! This past four years has traveled really slow, but I will never forget the memories that (the class of 1997) have brought to it. It will be hard to say good-bye to everyone, but new beginning will be around the horizon. Raj - Thanks for being a good friend all th years. Todd O. - Vale un pene? It's been nice knowing you. We had a lot of great times together. Jeff F. - What can I say, what would Spanish class be without you? P - Sorry about the incident. Doug D. - Keep on reading those World Weekly News. Ma D. - Times has been fun, especially homeroom. We'll always be neighbors. Middleto rules!!! P.S. - I got my license. Class of 97 - It's been fun these past four years and it will get even better in college. I miss you all!! My family - You have provided me wi all the inspiration to succeed in college and I would like to thank you for that.

There are so many people I love and need to thank, that there is not enough space. So you know who you are and please never forget all the good and bad times that we have been through. I know I will never forget you all. You will all always be in my heart.
Mom, Dad, Brandy, Briana, Dan, Auntie, Nanny, Ann- I love you all so much that words can never explain exactly how much. I appreciate everything you all have done for me and I wouldn't have been anywhere if it hadn't been for all of your love and support. You all have been a big part of my life. I'll love you all forever and thank you so much.
Kit- I love you and always will. Hope you get the best out of life (including your Porsche.)
Meghan, Becca- You've been the best of friends anyone could ask for. Love you guys and thank you for always being there. Cheering was the best! Capt. Meg especially 1996
Megan- You are very thoughtful and a good kid, don't change. Love ya
Jess- My twin. Love ya like a sister. (Remember our deal.)
Amanda- Had fun those late nights. (Try 3 a.m.) Good luck!
Mark, Aaron- What can I say, you guys are the best. Thanx for everything. Love Z!
Andy- You're one of a kind.
"Keep in touch, life is short, make the best of it."

It's been 4 long HARD years but somehow I made it through. I know, though, that I could never had made it through alone. I would like to thank all my friends who, not only helped me but also made me the person I am. Because we are all bits and pieces of each other. Andie- Day nurse, "food candy gum, mentos", swimming and clam digging at Revere Beach, Spanish videos Helene- camping out in your backyard, fun home videos, "I got a new fleece, Who cares?" Adam-Thanks for all the memories (& roses). Your a great person even though you are obsessed with the Allman Brothers. Anna- Many, many talks, "Jan Give me back my keys" fun night, Friendly's, "can I get a ride home?" Jett- Find someone new and tell AD I said Hi. And: MG,DL,RM,NC,WD,LM,NT,LF,SG,ML I had plenty to say but not enough room.

Some day an answer will find us, quite a long shot but anyway. I think the past is behind us, be real confusing if not, but anyway. I put all my hope in tommorrow, its gonna be great, but anyway. I see a new day a dawning, I like to sleep late, oh well, but anyway. --John Popper

To those whose names encircle this memoir.....
You are all true friends and good people, I THANK YOU.
To any others who made my four years at Masco a little more bearable.....
Although your names will not be immortalized here, I WON'T FORGET YOU.
To those members of my class with whom I never became friends.....
I regret never having known you, I WISH YOU GOOD LUCK.

I'm trying really hard to fit everything and everyone in here, but the truth is I probably won't be able to. So I'll do my best and hope that those people and things that I somehow forgot for the moment, will know how much I appreciated them and what they did for me. Emily- It won't mean a thing in 20 years. The famous qoute that got me thru four years. Bono, Bono, Bono, Dante, Bono. Watching TV on the phone. HORDE. The Real World. ER (George and Paz) It don't mean a thing, if it ain't got that swing. RETURN OF THE KILLER TOMATOES!! Prom '96. When you feel bad...I feel good (our qoute). You understand me like no one else Em, thanks for being a best Friend. Becky- Things have sure changed since we started going to the Strawberry Festival 6 years ago. Softball at Emerson. and prayers for snow days. We've listened to each other for so long that I don't know what I'll do without ya, GL! Brya- Who else would I complain to? German, Math and A.P. Irish History. Thanks for agreeing with me when others wouldn't. Shannon- Positive Thinking! It really works. Someday our respective doors will open (I hope). Rachel- My partner in crime. I understand the way you think. "Grab the flashlight! Someone just said bello." the weather stick and the game at lunch. Perhaps the DINGO ate your baby! WILD and CRAZY days. Thanks for everything. Jeff- Who would have guessed that we would remain friends for so long after the singing on the bus incident in 3rd grade (I had to mention it). Good Luck in all that you do. Mom and Dad- Thanks for all that you have given me. I love you. Katie- Thanks for being such a great big sis. Love ya lots! Why bother with names? Things will change within the year anyway. Hopefully, these four years at Masco prepare me for a new beginning in my life. Life speeds along and there is a fork in the trail. The path we end up taking will alter our lives forever. A world of difference is coming down on us. Who knows how we will change?

CHRISTINA-since second grade until now many memories remain in the past yet still more to come. watch out for the Bradford bunny slope(but yeah we all know it was pams fault!) mexico-hampton-florida never forget. stay away from psycho boyfriends-you know what I mean your sure know how to pick them. PAMMY-all I can say is do you think we will ever find our way around without getting lost-but anyway love spending endless hours in the car, wanting taco bell even though they told us a million times they were closed, but we needed our tacos hey spam who says we can't be sneakers-never forget dare camp, pearl street, the army guys laughing at us cause we locked the keys in. SHELL BELL-watch out for those north andover guys, drain pipes and fences-cause shell their watching us! never forget stakeouts in hampton in the horny toad-watch out for that alarm-did you ever get those chips out from new years-detectives for 1000. AMES-from north andover to saugus/lynn and now to revere, no matter if it is a blizzard, getting stuck in a fence or standing under drain pipes we still manage to commute-yet through it all we still remain the chicken finger sandwich girls(a.d-m.s-j.h).-BUG-only known you for a while and even though your the youngest-still love you-cause you can stay out till one-don't worry sporty probe forgave you-have fun at masco next year maybe one day you'll be a senior too!-SHAN-been through a lot but happy were friends-never forget c.c. having to be woken up at seven in the morning by pam's dad. DANIELLE-been through a lot, long talks with your mom at the kitchen table-4:00 in the morning typing papers ready to kill one another, and bonding as we drove around aimlessly-thanks for always being there. LIZ-junior year english with donnavel was the best, keep in touch don't get lost like last summer! CJ-thanks for always being there for me-love you. DOUG-AS IF!!! DAN-keep in touch. Mom, Dad, Joe and I guess Kim-an thanks for being there love you, samantha I love you your the best as for eppie and sy don't think I'll miss you guys but still love even you guys! To the people I forgot I'm real sorry yet to all the girls (you know who you are) never forget all the good and bad times, I love you all!

Andie, Anna, and Jan~What would I have done these past years without you guys? We camped out in the wild with mice and Beavises. We've also had our share of Building # 19 and sunburns, and enough Goonies to last us a lifetime.

"You just call out my name and you know wherever I am, I'll come running to see you again. Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call, and I'll be there...you've got a friend."

Dan~ Together, we've broadened the minds of a group of 7th graders, created the duck-duck chick munk, and came to the agreement, it was a bullet proof plan. We've had a great time, and I wouldn't change a thing...accept maybe the hole in my wall.

This Bridge

This bridge will only take you halfway there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:
Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
The moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
So come and walk awhile with me and share
The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But this bridge will only take you halfway ther-
The last few steps you'll have to take alone.

If you think you'll succeed, you will.
if you think you'll achieve, you do.
If you think in the terms of winning,
then you will come shining through.
If you think you can conquer, you can.
If you think you'll make it,
It's not always the fastest one,
or the strong woman or man who is crowned in the race called life:
It's those who think they can.

The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

NO Difference
Small as a peanut
Big as a giant,
We're all the same size
When we turn off the light.

Rich as a sultan,
Poor as a mite,
We're all worth the same
When we turn off the light.

Red, black or orange,
Yellow or white,
We all look the same
When we turn off the light.

So maybe the way
To make everything right
Is for God to just reach out
And turn off the light!

So its been 4 years since I came to Massachusetts and started high school here at Masco. Now it's time to spend some more years at college. It's kind of amazing how after 1,460 days (including summer) of being with this class, there are people whose paths I've never crossed and most likely never will. I've met a lot of good people however, and I hope our paths will meet in the future. Now is a great time. We have this huge world right in front of us, and an opportunity to do and create something; whether in America or maybe some far off foreign place. If the rest of life goes by as fast as high school has, I guess it's time to start looking outward and towards the future. Nevertheless, college is around the corner and with it, new lives for all of us. Good luck to the class of 1997, and have a good time wherever you are, and with whatever you do.

Tryin' On Clothes Shel Silverstein

I tried on the farmer's hat,
Didn't fit.
A little too small-just a bit
Too floppy.
Couldn't get used to it,
Took it off.

I tried on the dancer's shoes.
A little too loose.
Not the kind you could use
For walkin'.
Didn't feel right in 'em
Kicked 'em off.

I tried on the summer sun,
Felt good.
Nice and warm-knew it would
Tried the grass beneath bare fe
Felt neat.
Finally, finally felt well dressec
Nature's clothes just fit me be

I like to think that when I sing my voice reflects all of those who have touched my life. these people and animals I owe more thanks than I could ever fit into this rectangle. First, I would like to thank my mother - if it wasn't for her, none of this would be possible. Taina- you have always been there for me. Angela, you are so good to me, I don't know how to repay you. To the rest of my family - I love you all. FAMILY is #1!! The ABC Program: an experience I'll never forget. To all of my fellow ABC students who have helped me along the way, thank you. The Lucas family: You welcomed me into your family and made me part of it. You made me feel loved I'll always treasure that. The Freunds: You have done so much for me, I appreciate it with all my heart. Thanks for everything. Tre: I'll always remember the times that we've been through, good and bad. Thanks for understanding me. To all of the friends I've made through the years - it's been real. Now it's time to move on. I only hope the future has something in store for all of us..

From one touch during freshman soccer to the day I almost killed you, we're still like this! "What have I done without you all these years?"

Helene

We definitely have to change this year. Maybe drive a fierro, go to Salem(I fell twice), go to Connor's(volleyball & TREE!), or just continue having more unforgettable good laughs.

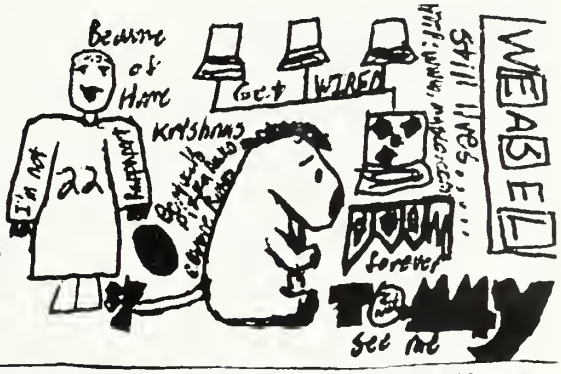
This senior space is (cynically) dedicated to Mr. Alvin Brown, History Teacher Extrordinaire, who I hold responsible for much of my future attitude and outlook on life, even though he will probably end up in the same ward with me at the funny farm when he finally cracks, and suffocates 37 freshmen in a giant pile of horse manure, screaming repeatedly "Find that darn_ pony!" while in his Eeyore PJ's...



To my class and companions— Lots of luck, and I hope to see you all again (and nicole and alyss) in 20 years when I'm rich and famous and you're all not. Just kidding. Have a great life, make the most of everything.

It's been an interesting four years to say the least. Not all of it was a strug though. I'll never forget my friends Donnie, Todd, and Mike. Donnie, I've known you for more than half of my life and hope to know you for the res it. Todd, you're a psycho, keep up the good work. To Mike, I pose a questio Do you know what time is it?? We must all keep in touch. Jen, believe in yourself and you will accomplish anything. Heather, I've always believe your potential. Use it to be the best you can be. Mom, you meant well and helped me through my years. Thank you. Finally, dad, to whom I dedicate this square: I couldn't have done anything I did without you. You were always there for me. Through good times and bad, I could always look to y I will never forget that. Well, I guess this is my last goodbye to four years that will hold endless memories in my mind. Goodbye Masco.

Jane M. Yannetti

"It is not the end, it is not even the beginning of the end. But perhaps we can say it is the end of the beginning." (Winston Churchill) Nik: you and I have been through it all and more. As you wrote freshman year, "We always have been and always will be forever buds" . . . Katy, Kerry, Steve, Sara, Cindy, Kato, Katie, Matt: We've managed to survive the peaks and valleys of this salt mine we call Masco. Good Luck. Have fun. Drink Pepsi. (NOT) I'll miss you guys . . . Jess, Brian, Nicole: Keep the joint standing. I'll be back to bug you. That's not a threat, it's a promise . . . Mrs. Johnson: I've always considered you more of a friend than a teacher. I'll miss our talks . . . Special thanks to Mom, Dad, Mark, Joey, Jilly, and Grampy -- I love you. "There's somewhere back there in the dust, that same small town in each of us, let me take one last look before we say goodbye." (Don Henley) JMY

Cynthia R. Young

Can't believe I'm here, writing this...long time since 7th grd..Masco...Who would I be w/o you?...didn't let me down...Mrs. Dolan, the letter I never sent...Does it matter?...I'm 17-almost dead!...Kate O-always been there 4 FPS, etc, since 8th grd-thru the best and worst of Masco together-Good luck!...Katie R-you're very different from me, that's why you make stuff so "interesting"! Good luck w/ DVM!...Ursula-Jr. High w/ you-know-who, the Beast, thanx 4 driving!...Jen-so glad I got to know you again...Natalie, Tell Me!, Das rockt!...Sara-the only one w/ lunches as bad as mine!...Kerry-you & Doug at lunch! God, running the track-you'll figure it out...Doug-loyal FPS'er & (Gross!) lunch guest, Life's too short to waste time building walls...Andrea-I've known you forever, like a sister...Plum Island, last day of Jr. year = the BEST!...Mom, Dad, & Jim, everyday I realize more ways you've shaped my life...I luv you!... " The energy of the world is equal to the hope in it. Even if only a few people share such hopes, a power is created which nothing can hold down." (Albert Schweitzer)... "Where did they see themselves in 20 years?"

I had no mind as a high school senior. I was occupied with what might happen inside the next ten minutes. Mostly I thought Carol Natale was absolutely beautiful. - Mr. Donavel

I imagined myself teaching high school while working my way through and MA program to be able to do PH.D work and teach at a college level. I imagined travelling during my summers off to places like Macchu Piccu, Peru. - Ms. Jaco

I wanted to travel around the world and then land in Colorado where I would be a ski bum and bartender. After that I was off to become a lawyer, get married and have 5 kids and be a singer in a rock and roll band. - Mr. Bigelow

I am exactly where I wanted to be in 1980 - married to a wonderful husband, teaching chorus in a secondary school with high academic goals, and performing music and theater on the side. - Ms. Sha

I thought of either becoming an english teacher or an art therapist..married by 30...maybe to the guy at "the prep" that I was dating at the time! It seems I was half correct, thank God not 100% - Ms. Pearsall

I only planned to teach for three years...I would make the world a better place for all people. - Mr. Dun

I couldn't get out of school fast enough. I couldn't wait to join the Army and go to Korea, and then I couldn't w to go home. - Wally

Picture us all as we look into the future...Looking in the same direction, yet seeing 200 different views.

That's what makes us...
VISIONARIES!

Friends, classmates; do not linger so,
You have better places to go.
Friends, step away from my tree,
Don't look so sad, do not weep for me.

Look all around you ,
No reason to be blue.
Don't stay here! Stop your mourning.
Get on with living, loving, learning.

Leave here, leave this gravesite.
Find a better place, a place of light.
Stop that, I say. Do not cry,
I am not in there. I did not die.

I am the thousand winds which blow,
I am a billion stars aglow.
I am all. I'm in each one of you,
In everything you do.

I am a sudden outgrowth of flowers,
Which make happy life's sad, sad showers.
I am help when you're about to fall,
I am a smile when you stand tall.

Friends, blessed with great chance are you,
A chance which I never knew,
A chance to live beyond sixteen years.
Alas, I want no pity, spare me your tears.

Just listen, please lend me your ear.
Listen to this message you should all hear.
Live not now in the valley of ignorance;
Else, spend your eternity in bitter repence.

Friends, a whole great world lies in wait,
A world uncharted, one not dictated by fate.
Do not live acording to any set form,
Take no shelter, go, take the world by storm!

Do not see things in black and white,
Set no limits; keep your mind not tight.
Question reality, take things not at second rate,
Love all, and only evil and anger hate.

Forget about when you're supposed to die,
Forget when you're supposed to cry.
Your time in this world is too short,
To live alone in an inpenetrable fort.

I'm the fertile soil from which all beauty grows.
I'm the part inside you which knows,
That life is too precious to waste,
Go, chart your course, make haste!

Before I wish my final farewell;
Do not think of me as being in heaven nor hell.
Because I am still here,
In that place in your heart you hold most dear.

This page is dedicated to the memory of Christopher Spagnoli, ou there, somewhere, taking the universe by storm. W love you, we miss you.

Your friends in the class of '97

Senior Frolics

After hours upon hours of brainstorming, rehearsing and choreography, the class of 1997 took the stage to frolic before hundreds of eager viewers. The cancellation of Friday's show due to sleet pushed the excitement level to the brink and made the performance even better. As the audience enjoyed such skits as "Baywatch", "Human Blender", the "Hypnotist", the seniors watched the beginning of the end of their years at Masco pass with humor, talent, and fun. So after all this...

Do you know who'd miss it?

Fall Fest

Oh what a sight! Despite the absence of bonfire light, fans were heated up by sports captains' tales of fall season. Students boogied down while viewing the cheerleaders' new stuff and reflecting upon the field house decorations, everything from MARDI GRAS to the Topsfield Fair. With King and Queen back on the throne , the commoners tried their luck to be singled out from the masses. Halftime skits entertained all, more so when a certain sophmoric class wore orange for the duration of the weekend. The strong feeling of Masco Pride along with a big win on Saturday made it even easier to envision returning again next year.

Holiday Party

"So, I heard the Holiday Party was really rockin'!"
"Any Santa Claus?"
"NOPE."
"Any Christmas Music?"
"NO."
"How about Holiday Decorations?"
"Wrong Again."

OK, so maybe the 1996 Holiday Party didn't live up to our image of the perfect seasonal gathering but nevertheless, the Class of 1997 (Jingle Bell) rocked around the clock. The absence of a winter wonderland outside didn't damper the spirits of the seniors as they rung in the New Year by decking the halls of Adele's. Good food, great music, and some wild dancing allowed a Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night.

Halloween Party

Even after careful examination, many haloween spooks were still unidentifiable. The costumes both distorted and fun, set the stage for all Masco's annual Senior Halloween Party. The crazy class of 1997 danced and partied into the night to the mysterious tunes of the DJ. Space Kittens, Bo and Luke Duke, and even Disco Kings brighten up the scene with their antics, while our exchange students gave the fun an international flair. Check out the photos and reflect upon the fright night of Hallow's Eve.

St. Patricks Dance

"Push those big, round, cafeteria tables out of the way we're coming to dance!!!" Masconomet history was made with the fisrt St. Patricks Day dance to set off without a hitch. A few, but strong spirited senoirs came out on March 21, to celebrate Irishman style. It was so GOOD, we danced to Vanilla Ice.....twice.

Erin Go' Bragh!

PROM 1996

After so much time preparing (hours for the girls and approximately a ½ hour for the guys) the 1996 Junior-Senior Prom was welcomed with open arms. Countless dollars spent, snapshots taken, and Limos rented all added to the fun at the Andover Marriott.

The entire evening was picturesque with dressed-up dates dancing the night away. King Jon Romito and Queen Helene McInerney oversaw the party and made sure that each of the attendants would remember this prom NOW and FOREVER.

S T A F F

Just in order to get us all on the same "page" here is a sample of some of the impressions of yearbook from th year's staff:

Advisor: Laurie Pearsall
"I just have a board meeting, I'll be right back, remember you are not unique-- we all have way too much to do!"

Editors: Kate Holloway and Erin McCann
"Don't bother us now, we're too busy! Just give it to the writing staff."

Computers: Jim Patterson and Monica Witorowski
"Endless hours of typing, scanning, and formating. Then we have to do it all again because we forgot to save it!"

Layout: Lauren Frost, Erika Lunn, and Lisa Lyons
"Just send our mail to K-102, 'cause we'll be forever counting picas!"

"Definitely one of the best experiences of... Oh wait... Yearbook?? Just get the !@#% away from me! And shut the darkroom door! You're letting in natural light!"

Writing: Angie Christensen and Matt D'Angelo
"If we hear one more word about vision I'm going to punch your eyes out!"

Editor-In-Training: Kristin Gleason
"Lots of work, but still loads of fun. Wait I still have another year?!"

Business Staff: Mr. Hussey, Danielle Tagg, Erin Baumgartner, Jan DeNofrio

WE GOTTA CRANK!

CLUBS

Clubs... all I can see are bright lights, disco dancing, crazy clothes, everyone spinning, and fun, fun, fun! Oops, wrong vision, except for the fun part of course! Masco's finest clubs are all about students coming together to share one common goal. They are Mensas, linguists, republicans, democrats, environmentalists, volunteers, deejays, etc., etc. The variety of clubs are as endless as the jobs they accomplish.

EQUUS

Equus, Masconomet's first psycho, mystery, thriller play! Beyond the closed doors of the auditorium rumors ran rampant of the plays controversial content. The truth is, the vision was lost when the poor horses' eyes were stabbed out because Alan was ashamed with himself. Don't worry! With the help of Dr. Dysart, Alan's future looks much brighter. Despite all the skepticism, the play turned out to be an exciting surprise to all.

Tommy

See me..feel me..Go to the mirror; that deaf dumb and blind kid...wait a minute.... sight? mirrors? vision?...could it be Yearbook: The Musical?, No, it was Masco's sensational production of The Who's Tommy. There was everything you could ever want, rock music, singing, dancing, and a whole lotta pinball. The vision of Lisa Lyons and Mr. West brought an amazing journey to Masco. The largest cast ever assembled on our stage tore the roof off the auditorium. From the first note of the Overture, the audience knew they were in for something big, exciting, and incredible.

It was a smash!

SPORTS

Another year has come and gone, and once again the Masco athletes have proved that they stand alone in the CAL. In a fast and furious frenzy, the Chieftains devoured their opponents to uphold the longstanding tradition of excellence. Whether the road to victory involves carving the perfect turn, launchin' the longest drive, or sending the winning goal home, it isn't hard to see that the force of Masconomet will remain on top for years to come.

FOOTBALL

Now let's move on to the big men on campus. No I'm not talking about the chess team, it's Masco Football 1996! Once again, these monsters of the grid iron put forth a strong showing in the CAL. Though the season didn't bring a title, both offensive and defensive lines proved that a lack of experience doesn't hurt success K-I-S-T-L-E-R Kistler! Kistler! Rah! Rah! Rah!

What is the secret t Masco football's success?

Eric Hawkes- "Jim Pugh and the other Masco coaches who relive the 1980s."

Vinny Cimmino- "Team unity is the secret. If we all play as a team, then we will win."

Dan Carmody- "Obviously I can'ttel you because then it wouldn't be a secret.

CHEERLEADING

We say Masco, you say cheerleading. "Masco... Cheerleading... Masco... Cheerleading!" The squad spiced up their routines with the arrival of a new coach, Jessica Stacy, and the addition of Masco's first male cheerleader, Justin Boepple. With captains of spirit, Amy Gallagher, Nicole DeBeradinis, and Meghan Sharry at the helm, the team completed an unprecedented season. There's no doubt they'll continue to do well in the future.

BOYS SOCCER

Someone open up a can of whoop SSA! Dr. Emmons silver anniversary proved to be golden as his faithful "Elite 29" came through during tournament time. After the grueling double-sessions, captains Evan Reece, Mark Capone, and Kent Geisel made sure all the hard work went to good use. Leading their team to another CAL title and the schools first state soccer championship has at last turned from vision to reality.

GOLF

The arrival of late August not only drew us closer and closer to the first day of school, it also brought the mighty sultans of swing back onto the tee. Whew, if you thought soccer had tough double sessions, try 18 holes at Far Corners! Despite the efforts of Co-captains Matt D'Angelo and Jeff Smith the team missed their 8th Cal Title by one point! With Coach Lauzon leading this powerhouse team, we can only foresee future success.

GIRLS X-COUNTRY

Cigars, pasta, three miles of exhaustive running; what more could a girl ask for. Those crazy bunnies were at it again this year dressing up like Joe and sprinting up those hills. With new Captains, Jackie Damigella and Andrea Hafty, the girls X-Country Team will surely be running into the future.

Laura Daly- "It must be wearing high ponytails and knowing that there is a basket of lollypops waiting at the finish."

BOYS X-COUNTRY

With special vision through his aviator glasses Matt Brodie led the numerous underclassmen on the Boy's X-Country team to a great season. He, along with the help of other captains Joe Cahill and junior Pat Mahoney, helped the team sprint away from Sinnott's Speedster. Hopefully their antics and their speed will carry them through another incredible season.

VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball team pulled together this year by beating their rival North Reading and singing row-row-row your boat to get pumped for games. They had victory in their sights and fought their way to the first round of states. Their team unity lead them into a few scuffles with the law when they stole rival Hamilton/Wenham's balls. All in all, this year was A WHALE OF A TIME!

FIELD HOCKEY

Two by two they came marching through clapping their hands and defeating the trip Wilmington, Rockport, and Triton. "Footloose" playing in the background, they danced their way to a record of 5-8-3. With a strong team lined up for next season, it's easy for these chix with stix to envision future success.

Girls Basketball

The secret to the girls basketball team's success-crazy bus rides! Their opponents never had a chance, because once the girls started to shake the back of the bus with dance parties, it foreshadowed certain defeat. The proof: the girls finished the regular season of 17-3. The Fontbonne Ducks croaked again, to the girls enjoyment, under the pressure of Hugs, Twigs, Hols, Smalls and everyone else who doesn't have a nickname that ends in "S". What's Mr. Cleary got to say about all of this? The coach says, "They're awesome!"

GYMNASTICS

These girls make up the silent sport of Masconomet. Velvety leotards vaulted, flipped, paralleled, and somersaulted their way to an excellent season (a.k.a they almost went to states). The sting of their coach Kim from Yellow Jackets was their inspiration to strive for improvement. Caitlin Worth
Tara Lemoine
Alison Maceachern
Nicole DeBerardinis

What's your favorite apparatus?

Alison Maceachern- I like the floor because of all the flipping and tumbling.

Caitlin Worth- I like the bars because I like getting dizzy.

Hockey

With the arrival of winter, the Masco Hockey Team took to the ice for their 1996-1997 season. Facing-off against some strong Cape Ann League competition, the Chieftains slashed through the opposition and posted an impressive record. The power playing Andy LeColst along with superb goaltending from Matt Adamo hooked fans into these intense and energetic game.

Not only did the team thrive this season, they'll no doubt change ahead of the pace next year.

Andy LeColst- 20 before the Saugus brawl and 15 after.

Greg LeColst- Depends where you're from; Boxford only averages 5.

Rick LeColst- Same as Gumper.

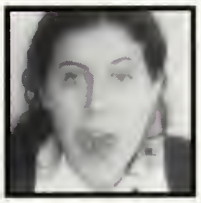
Girls Skiing

The fact that Old Man Winter forgot to make snow didn't slow the speed queens down for a second. The boys at "big" Bradford stepped in, and made just enough snow so the girls could race to the finish line and complete a grand season. By using threats of "Tu caballo es feo" in five different languages the girls won nine out of ten races. The North Shore league title had to be shared with Masco's ultimate enemy, North Andover. However, Masco is number one in racing with super-sportsmanship attitudes. For during the biggest race of the season vs. North Andover, the N.A. girls bragged about winning the race, but the Masco girls made them eat a little humble pie;and defeated them instead!

Varsity Roster

Andrea Lunn	Angie Christensen
Brooke Bagge	Amy Divenuti
Caitlin Carey	Kate Holloway
Erica Carlson	Erin McCann
Catrina Cattan	Shannon Murphy
Amanda Malgari	Brooke Goodwin
Christine McManus	Abigail McLaughlin
Lyndsey Sennott	Jaclyn McCraine
Meredith Tanguay	Mariana Aguiar

How do you ski since we didn't get any snow?



Erin McCann- Ski like a gangsta & wing it, then you'll have no problem.

Kate Holloway- Very carefully, because if you fall you might get grass stains on your snazzy GS suit.

Amy Divenutti- Same as always. Ski like a motha!

Boys Skiing

SWOOSH!! No, not Nike, We're talkin' skiing here. Some of the finest racers to grace the hills of Bradford helped make up this years Masconomet Boys Ski Team. Working around another crazy New England winter (65 degrees in February), the guys managed to find enough snow to plow through virtually every opponent. Kent, Will, and Matt made sure that Masco was always first at the finish line and that the winning tradition would be kept alive.

Varsity Roster

Matthew Brodie	Peter Doig
Will Carey	Mike Berking
Will Doig	Greg Lord
Kent Geisel	Kevin Dawson
Evan Reece	David Fabrizio
Mike Soucy	Steve Gagnon
Mike Walsh	Nathaniel Gori
Bryce Waterman	Lee Stone
Kevin Curran	Jay McEntee
Brian Cullinan	Paul Howard

What's the deal with those spandex suits?

Will Carey- They're just perfect because we've got such cute butts.

Kent Geisel- We need them because they won't let us go down naked.

Matt Brodie- What's up with them? Not much, they're too tight!

Swimming

Like "fish in water" the swim girls and boys easily completed an undefeated season of 8-0 and evolved into CAL champs. Swimming is definitely a different experience. The competitors swim in harmony, for example during warm-ups the two teams are talking to each other in the shallow end. These swimmers respect each other and there are no hard feelings. After a big race, a swimmer looks to the side and sees a friendly face holding out a hand; and sometimes it's their energetic coach, Lisa Truhant who is constantly giving great support.

So fast...you can't see them!

How long can you hold your breath underwater?

Jen Fravel- Until Mr. Casey changes our swim meet!

Stephanie Jalbert- Until I turn blue.

Girls Track

Orange streaks of lightning rule the hall from 3 to 5! All this practice plowing over straggling junior high kids led them to become Cape Ann League champs. Cathy Flynn's arm of steel broke Masconomet's shot put record and carried her to an undefeated season. The fire within the Trackies running spirits burned for play day. They enjoy fun days aerobicizing, playing telephone, or tag; basically anything except running.

Rachel Castricone- We just all really like Sunny D.

Laura Daly- You gotta be a GIT member to know that secret.

Erin Baumgartner- It has to do with a night of pure boredom and 1 dollar pants at Bob's

Cathy Flynn- It showed our team spirit.

Boys Track

With their Asics tied tight and legs all limbered up, the mighty Boys Track Team completed their season with a BANG. Establishing a hefty 8 and 2 record, these wing-footed wild men proved they were consistently first off the blocks. As Pat Mahoney and Jon Romito ran off to All-States, Steve Palenscar managed to stay in-bounds enough to add to the team's success. Thanks to Coach Sinnott and Assistant Coach Forrest Gump, the C.A.L. title is a hurdle Masco will surely clear.

Jon Romito- Looks fun, but all I do is throw shot put.

Pat Mahoney- I wouldn't know because I'm not stupid enough to do the 2 mile.

Wrestling

With the start of the winter season, the "men of the mat" were eager to attack and take down the opposition. This year's Masconomet wrestling team looked forward to stacking up more wins, building on past success. Seniors Jeff Fauci, Jamie Gain, and Jim Patterson led the singlet sporting Chieftans to a respectable league record. However, a strong league overall forced Puleo's crew to battle for every pin, every point. Yet with a hefty lineup next year, including stand-out Ron Gage, Masco will surely have no trouble throwing their weight around.
